George Mason University’s
Terrorism, Transnational Crime, and Corruption Center
Hosts:

Muhiddin Tojiev & Sharofiddin Soliev
GMU Visiting Scholar GMU Visiting Scholar
Department of Public and International Affairs School for Conflict Analysis and Resolution

“Corruption in Tajikistan: Causes and Consequences.”

Sharofiddin Soliev is currently a visiting scholar at the School for Conflict Analysis and Resolution in George Mason University. He graduated from the Political Science Department of the Tajik State National University in 2003. Soliev has been a PhD Student in Political Science at the Institute of Philosophy, Law and Political Science of the Tajik Academy of Sciences. He has been exploring the problems of corruption in transition period in Tajikistan and has several articles on this issue published with different local and regional publications.

Muhiddin Tojiev is a current Visiting Scholar at the Department of Public and International Affairs of George Mason University in Fairfax, Virginia, USA. He is a Junior Fellow at the Open Society Foundations’ Central Asia and Caucasus Research and Training Initiative (CARTI). Tojiev graduated from Khujand State University, Tajikistan in 2005 with the major in English. He worked for different local and international organizations operating in Tajikistan. Tojiev has participated in different events, including seminars, summer courses and conferences in some European and CIS countries. As a PhD Student in Political Science at the Tajik Academy of Sciences, Tojiev is doing his doctoral research on “The Problems of Optimization of the Anticorruption Policy of Tajikistan.”

Opening Remarks given by Ambassador (ret.) Richard Kauzlarich, Deputy Director of TraCCC

Date: Monday, April 9th, 12:00pm-2:00pm

Location: Room 113, Founders Hall,
3351 Fairfax Drive
Arlington, VA 22201

This is a Brown Bag Lunch
To RSVP, Please contact Caitlin Kurylo at traccc@gmu.edu or 703-993-9757