

George Mason University's Terrorism, Transnational Crime, and Corruption Center host:

Fasihuddin

Police Service of Pakistan (PSP)
Founder of Pakistan Society of Criminology and Editor-in-Chief of Pakistan Journal of Criminology

Mr. Fasihuddin is a senior officer of the Police Service of Pakistan (PSP), the author of Expanding Criminology to Pakistan, and holds a MBBS, LLB and MA in Political Science. Currently, he is the Director General of Human Rights in the Central Police Office of the KPK Province in Pakistan. He has served in various law-enforcement agencies including the Frontier Constabulary, the Intelligence Bureau, and the Federal Investigation Agency.

He has presented his field experiences at - international conferences and seminars and visited many countries including USA, UK, Canada, Germany, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Turkey, Thailand, Nepal, China and Japan. His work has been published internationally, and is widely known in the international community of criminologists. He is strongly committed to bringing criminology to Pakistan as an established and independent discipline.

Mr. Fasihuddin is a regular contributor to the most popular newspaper of the KPK Province, Daily Aaj Peshawar, under the title of Khama Bajosh. His columns are well-received and available on www.dailyaaj.com.pk. He writes mostly about social issues, police and policing, criminology and other international issues of concerning Pakistan and the community at large.

Opening Remarks given by Ambassador (ret.) Richard Kauzlarich, Deputy Director of TraCCC

Date: Friday, October 7th, 12:30pm-2:00pm

Location: Room 113, Founders Hall
3351 Fairfax Drive
Arlington, VA 22201

Lunch Will Be Served

To RSVP, Please fill out attached reservation form and send to tracc@gmu.edu or contact Caitlin Kurylo at 703-993-9757