

The Open World Leadership Center and George Mason University's Terrorism, Transnational Crime and Corruption Center (TraCCC) PRESENT

Safeguarding Russia's At-Risk Groups: Assisting Human Trafficking Victims and Programming for At-Risk Youth

Thursday, 10 December 2009, 10am-11:30am
School of Public Policy, George Mason University
3401 Fairfax Drive, Room 245
Arlington, VA 22201

A Panel Discussion Featuring:

Olga Golubkova

Deputy Head of the Juvenile Division, Pervomayskiy Precinct
Vladivostok City Police Department, Vladivostok

Veronika Ishchenko

NGO "Rostov Regional Resource Center on Violence Prevention" Rostov-on-Don

Marina Zakharova

Specialist, Human Rights Council under the Mayor of Astrakhan City
Secretary, Youth Council under the City Administration
Astrakhan

Moderated by Dr. Louise Shelley, TraCCC Founder and Director, and Dr. Sally Stoecker, TraCCC Senior Scholar and Consultant

This event is free and open to the public but seating is limited and reservations are suggested.
For more information or to reserve a seat, please contact TraCCC at tracc@gmu.edu or 703-993-9757.