Combating Criminalized Power Structures: Predominant Spoilers of Peace Missions

George Mason University's Peace Operations Policy Program and TraCCC are pleased to co-sponsor a full day's discussion, with members of the UN High-level Independent Panel on Peace Operations, of recommendations for combating criminalized power structures--the leading spoilers of peace and stability operations. This will be based on conclusions from the new book, "Overlooked Enemies of Peace: Subduing Criminalized Power Structures"

Presenters Include

- Dr. Desmond Arias, Director, George Mason University Peace Operations Policy Program
- Stefan Feller, Senior Police Advisor, UN Department of Peacekeeping Operations
- David Beer, former Police Commissioner from the UN mission in Haiti (MINUSTAH)
- Ameerah Haq and Andy Hughes, Vice Chair and member of the UN High-level Independent Panel on Peace Operations (closing remarks)

Date: Monday, March 16th, 2015, 9:00am-5:00pm (lunch on your own)
Location: Room 111, Founders Hall
3351 Fairfax Drive
Arlington, VA 22201
