

The Terrorism, Transnational Crime and Corruption Center (TraCCC) is the first center in the United States devoted to understanding the links among terrorism, transnational crime and corruption, and to teaching, researching, training and helping to formulate policy on these critical issues. TraCCC is a research center within the Schar School of Policy and Government at George Mason University.

Wildlife Trafficking

Hot Spots, Congressional Action, and Impacts of CoP17

TraCCC is pleased to convene a panel to discuss global trends in wildlife trafficking, combatting it, and the tools available to do so. We will discuss results of the recent CITES CoP17 meeting, new U.S. legislation on the issue, innovative analytics being used, and U.S. law enforcement work in countering wildlife trafficking. Members of the wildlife NGO community will also be welcomed to provide updates on their current work on this issue.

Presenters
