

Terrorism, Transnational Crime and Corruption Center (TraCCC)

The Terrorism, Transnational Crime and Corruption Center (TraCCC) is the first center in the United States devoted to understanding the links among terrorism, transnational crime and corruption, and to teaching, researching, training and helping to formulate policy on these critical issues. TraCCC is a research center within the Schar School of Policy and Government at George Mason University.

Spotlight on a Critical Threat:

The Abuse and Exploitation of Red Notices, Interpol and the U.S. Judicial Process by Russia and other Authoritarian States

What: A full day conference sponsored by the Schar School of Policy and Government's Terrorism, Transnational Crime and Corruption Center (TraCCC) with the support of the National Security Institute, Scalia Law School, George Mason University. The conference will focus on how the asylum and judicial process in the United States is being undermined and why. A very special group of speakers will provide domestic and international perspectives on the problems that exist and offer thoughts on policies that can help mitigate risks.

When: Wednesday, November 28, 2018, 9:00 am – 4:30 pm

Where: George Mason University's Schar School, 3351 Fairfax Drive, Arlington Virginia 22201, (Virginia Square Metro Stop)

Confirmed speakers include:

- General Michael Hayden – Former Director of the Central Intelligence Agency
- Michael Chertoff – Former Secretary of Homeland Security
- Seth Hettena – Author, Trump/Russia: A Definitive History
