

The Terrorism, Transnational Crime and Corruption Center (TraCCC) is the first center in the United States devoted to understanding the links among terrorism, transnational crime and corruption, and to teaching, researching, training and helping to formulate policy on these critical issues. TraCCC is a research center within the Schar School of Policy and Government at George Mason University.

FILM SCREENING

American Exploitation:

The Slaves among Us

Featuring:

Ben Brothers – Director

John Carter – Producer

“American Exploitation” focuses on the complex, subversive nature of sex trafficking and the efforts of social advocates, law enforcement agencies, state legislators, and victims-turned-heroes to effectively eradicate the volatile system from the idyllic area of southwest Florida and create lasting change in the world.

TraCCC is pleased to host an advanced screening of the 90 minute film, followed by a panel discussion with the film producer and director and TraCCC researchers.
