

The Panama Papers Panel: Tax Havens – Who, Why, & Impacts

Featuring:

Marina Walker Guevara – Manager, Panama Papers Investigation
Juan Ricardo Ortega – Former Commissioner, Tax & Customs (Colombia)

Marina Walker Guevara is deputy director of the International Consortium of Investigative Journalists and Co-Manager of the “Panama Papers” investigation, involving more than 370 reporters in 76 countries. She has written about environmental degradation by mining companies, the global offshore economy, the illicit tobacco trade, and more. Her stories have appeared in several international media including The Washington Post, The Miami Herald, Le Monde and the BBC. She holds degrees from Universidad Nacional de Cuyo in Mendoza, Argentina, and University of Missouri.

Juan Ricardo Ortega is the former Commissioner of the Colombian Tax and customs agency, DIAN, where he is credited with fighting corruption and tax evasion through the use of shell companies. He currently serves as a principal advisor at the Department for Central America, Panama and Dominican Republic at the Inter-American Development Bank. He has served as Treasury Secretary of Bogotá, Vice Finance Minister, Vice Trade Minister and Director of Fogafin, Colombia’s FDIC, and Economic Secretary to the Presidency. He holds degrees from Universidad de los Andes in Bogotá Yale University.

Date: Wednesday, May 11th, 2016, 12:00-2:00pm

Location: Founders Hall Auditorium
3351 Fairfax Drive, Arlington, VA 22201
(Virginia Square Metro Stop)

RSVP required for this event. Please click here or contact Kasey Kinnard at tracc@gmu.edu / 703-993-9757

NOTE: Food and drink are not permitted in the auditorium. Coffee & cookies provided after the talk